Dear TCES Parents & Families:

Greetings!

I hope you are enjoying Winter Break and continuing to be safe and well.

Attached is an extra credit opportunity to set some goals for 2021!

I know some of the spaces to write are too small so feel free to fill out on another sheet of paper or the back.

The goals can be set as a family or students can set individually. Here is an example:

- Goal 1: As a family, we want to read together 30 minutes a day spending some of the time reading by ourselves, reading together or taking turns reading.
- Goal 1-Action Plan: Here are the actions we are going to take as a family to reach our goal:
 - Set up a schedule that after dinner each evening we will read for 30 minutes after we do the dishes
 - Leave a note on the refrigerator to remind us to read after dinner before screen time.
 - When we read for five nights in a row, celebrate by taking some time out the next weekend to go outside for a walk or play a game we enjoy.

I hope the example helps develop your own goals as a family. When you are finished, you can submit the goals worksheet through Schoology, or send to my email jroberson@tcusd.org or text me a picture of the completed goals, 928.606.8240. Your child will receive ELA extra credit and we will post your goals to the TCES Website!

Happy New Year and all the best in 2021!

Kind regards:

Dr. Justin Roberson
